

Arkansas Extraordinary Resource Stream Designations Classified by Geographic Region

Note: Because of the subjective nature of this classification, and the length of many of ERW streams, most streams are listed in more than one geographic region.

NorthWest Arkansas

Buffalo River
Kings River
Bull Shoals Reservoir
Mulberry River
Lee Creek from state line upstream to headwaters
Kings River
Buffalo River

NorthCentral Arkansas

Current River
Eleven Point River
Strawberry River
Spring River, including its tributaries: Field Creek, Big Creek, English Creek, Gut Creek and Myatt Creek
South Fork Spring River
North Sylamore Creek
Buffalo River
Kings River
Bull Shoals Reservoir
Devils Fork of Little Red River including Beech Creek, Tomahawk Creek, Turkey Creek, Lick Creek and Racoon Creek
Middle Fork of Little Red River above Greers Ferry Reservoir
Archey Creek from headwaters to confluence with South Fork Little Red River
Illinois Bayou including North, Middle and East Forks
Piney Creek
Hurricane Creek
Mulberry River
Richland Creek and Falling Water Creek
Buffalo River
Salado Creek

NorthEast Arkansas

Second Creek
Cache River above Cache Bayou - adjacent to natural areas
Strawberry River
Two Prairie Bayou adjacent to natural areas

Central Arkansas

Cadron Creek including North Fork and East Fork
Big Creek adjacent to natural areas
DeGray Reservoir
Saline River - entire segment including North, Alum, Middle and South Forks
Lake Ouachita
Caddo River - above DeGray Reservoir
Moro Creek - adjacent to natural area
Cache River above Cache Bayou - adjacent to natural areas
Two Prairie Bayou adjacent to natural areas

SouthWest Arkansas

Lake Ouachita
Caddo River - above DeGray Reservoir
South Fork Caddo River
Cossatot River - above Gillham Reservoir
Caney Creek
Little Missouri River - above Lake Greeson
Mountain Fork River
Big Fork Creek - adjacent to natural area
Saline River

SouthEast Arkansas

Arkansas River below Dam #2
Saline River
Moro Creek - adjacent to natural area