PC&EC to Hold January Meeting via Zoom

NORTH LITTLE ROCK—The recent surge of COVID-19 cases in Arkansas has resulted in the Arkansas Department of Energy and Environment (E&E) and the Pollution Control and Ecology Commission (PC&EC) taking precautions to reduce the spread of COVID-19. Accordingly, the PC&EC meeting scheduled for Friday, January 28, 2022, will be held via Zoom video conferencing starting at 9 a.m. The PC&EC January 2022 meeting agenda includes a request for a favorable vote on the adoption of proposed amendments to Rule 2, and a request for a favorable vote on the adoption of proposed amendments to Rule 19. The PC&EC agenda, including links to various documents associated with the agenda items, will be made available online at: <https://www.adeq.state.ar.us/commission/agenda.aspx> for the public to view in advance of the meeting.

Due to the January meeting being conducted via Zoom, individuals wanting to make a public comment must email their comments prior to the meeting to comment@adeq.state.ar.us. Public comments received before 5 p.m. on Thursday, January 27, 2022, will be provided to PC&EC prior to its Friday, January 28, 2022, meeting. The PC&EC meeting will be live-streamed on Arkansas PBS at: <https://www.myarkansaspbs.org/arcan/home>. If you are unable to access the meeting via television or internet, then please contact EEComms@adeq.state.ar.us to obtain instructions for how to listen via telephone.
