PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Pulaski County Regional Solid Waste Management Dist. will allocate $52,516.00 of the 2007 recycling grant funds for administration of projects within the district, including requesting, disbursing and reporting on the usage of grant funds. Other projects include technical assistance to the localities in the county, the household chemical collection program, special recycling educational events, electronics recycling, coordination of Board and Technical Committee activities and other administrative requirements.

The Pulaski County Regional Solid Waste Management Dist. has worked with its municipal governments in the county to implement the most efficient, integrated solid waste management program possible for Pulaski County residents. Establishing recycling programs for the residences is key. Pulaski County has one of the most aggressive and comprehensive programs in the state and the District strives on updating and improving.

Pulaski County's population is 361, 474 and is made up of five Class 1 cities, Jacksonville (29,916), Little Rock (183,133), Maumelle (10,557), North Little Rock (60,433), Sherwood (21,511) and the Pulaski County unincorporated area (55,924).

The main goal of the District is to provide ways to increase knowledge of and participation in both local recycling services and other services not available through individual local governments, including household chemical collections, electronics recycling, county-wide marketing, promotion and education. These services will be coordinated throughout the District office and implemented as soon as possible with the member jurisdictions.

The recycling programs covered under this administration grant collect aluminum, steel, glass, plastic, paper, electronics and household chemicals. These materials are collected from mobile recycling drop-off centers, manned Saturday drop-off centers, permanent electronics collection centers and permanent household chemical collection facilities open on Saturday and weekday schedules.

The District places a strong emphasis on education. The District's website offers a recycling hotline number and recycling information and education. Greta Green, the District's recycling character, leads educational presentations in the classroom, meetings and daycare centers and at recycling centers. Each presentation features, displays, songs and integrated education on recycling, reuse and reduction.

The District is a regular participant in and sponsors special events throughout the County. The District helps sponsor Pulaski County Day, USGBC, Pulaski County Kite Festival, Arkansas Flower and Garden Show and Earth Day at the Zoo .The District's booth is an educational booth.

The district is especially involved with its membership with the Arkansas Recycling Coalition and Keep Arkansas Beautiful.

The District teams with ADEQ to sponsor teacher workshops. The District strives to make recycling news and information readily available so that it becomes an integrated part of the teaching curriculum.

The District targets the whole citizenry in providing education and information. The website provides detailed information, newsletters are mailed out quarterly, postcards are mailed for special events and the Annual Report provides a detailed picture of solid waste management practices in Pulaski County.

The District is a partner with ADEQ, the Cooperative Extension Service, Arkansas Recycling Coalition, Keep Arkansas Beautiful, local media and other Solid Waste and Planning Districts. These partnerships are crucial in providing accurate and balanced information to the public.

The municipal solid waste stream in Pulaski County is nearly 200,000 tons. The recycling programs covered under this administration grant collect aluminum, steel, glass, plastic, paper and household chemicals.

The Jacksonville Recycling Center is open Monday through Friday, the Sherwood drop off center is open seven days a week. The drop off in Maumelle is open Wednesday through Saturday, the county mobile centers are on a Monday through Friday schedule, the Fairpark, St. Margarets and McCain manned drop off centers will be open every Saturday from 7 to 12 noon. The five permanent household chemical collection and electronics centers are open the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th Saturdays and Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday each week. A new household center in Maumelle will be open one day a week and one Saturday a month, to be open by end of 2007. The Saturday hours are from 7 to 12 noon and to make the weekdays more convenient the hours are from 7-9:30 am and 3:30-5:30 pm. The household chemical collection sites and the Saturday morning recycling drop-off centers are manned collection sites.

The district manages and operates six permanent electronic collection centers located in Jacksonville, Sherwood, Maumelle, NLR, Little Rock and at Pulaski County Sanitation. The centers are open at the same times as the household chemical collection centers.
