Amy,

Thank you so much, I did receive an automated response-pretty snazzy.

You should have received an automated response as well, a new feature, but yes, this is still the correct address and it is still working.

Thank you.

Amy,

I am testing this email to insure that it is still a working email address. We have gotten reports of emails that have bounced back from our members.

Can you please confirm that this email is still working?

Thank you,

Emily

Is this the appropriate link for public comments on C&H Farms permit?
