It appears egregiously arrogant on the part of the ADEQ to set a public comment deadline a week before the National Park Service assessment document pertinent to the Buffalo River Hog Factory is available. Where is the Governor?

Sent from my iPad