

Junior boys win again

When the week started, the Calico Rock Junior Boys had a season record of 6-0 - six wins and no losses. They played four games in the week - Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday - and won all of them. That moved their record to 10-0. Two were regular season games, two were a part of the Norfolk Invitational Tournament. In the last game of those four the Junior Pirates defeated Melbourne at Melbourne 46-31. Logan Dickerson was high for the winners with 13 points. Cole Whiteaker had 11 and Connor Sanders registered 9. For Melbourne, Alex Bray with 8 and Jordan Curtis scored 6. For Calico Rock, the game was heavily laden with assists: Cole Whiteaker to Kaiden Withrow; Sanders to Cade Whiteaker; Sanders to Cade Whiteaker (again); Sanders to Dickerson; Sanders to Dickerson (again); Dickerson to Cade Whiteaker.

Three-pointers? Melbourne had two. In fact, they were scoreless in the first quarter until 16.3 seconds were left and a three-pointer from Freedom Ford streamed successfully through the net. Their second one was with 2:25 left in the game. Those for the Junior Pirates were by Kyle Traversie and Joseph Griggs.

Senior boys win at Melbourne, move to 13-1

The Calico Rock Senior Boys continued their winning ways with a convincing win over Melbourne 57-20 at Melbourne. It was one of the better games played by the Pirates, who shot 42% from the field while holding Melbourne to 20% from the field. Brian Parnell had 19 points for the winners, with Logan Sherrill following with 11,

Brett James with 9, and Brendan Sneathern with 9. Jay Chaney was high-point man for the host team with 13. The Pirates had a bunch of assists in the game. Here are some that were caught by the writer's pen: James to Sherrill; Parnell to James; Parnell to James (again); Austin Pool to Sherrill; Parnell to Sneathern; Gary Sample to Sneathern; Parnell to James still again); Parnell to Sneathern (again); Sample to Bruce Chandler.

Each team had two successful three-pointers from Freedom Ford in Melbourne. Parnell had the 2 for the Pirates.
The season record for Calico Rock's Senior Boys stood at 13-1 after this game.

Senior girls lose to Melbourne

In a regular season game that was to be followed by a Lyon College Tournament game involving the same two teams the very next night, the Calico Rock Lady Pirates and the Melbourne Lady BearKatz squared off for the first one in the Melbourne gymnasium and Melbourne got to enjoy the outcome, edging the Lady Pirates 43-36. Emiley Gardner was the main offensive problem for Calico Rock as she nailed down 22 points for the winners. Her teammate Natalie Woolsey had 8 points.

Kelsey Fry had 10 points for Calico Rock and Timi Killian scored 8, as the record for the Lady Pirates fell to 9-5 on the season. Outside of a 2-2 score at the very first, Melbourne was ahead all the way, with one or two exceptions. It was 30-30 with 49 seconds left to go in the third quarter, and it was 32-32 only seconds later. Calico Rock took the lead briefly with 2 seconds to go in that quarter, 34-32, but Melbourne started the fourth quarter by quickly deadlocking the game again and then forging ahead once more, never trailing after that.

The Lady Pirates outgunned the Lady BearKatz from beyond the three-point line 4 to 1, with Erin Sherrill notching 1 from Freedom Ford and Kassie Fry ringing up another. Kelsey Fry got 2 from that location. In fact, in the space of 27 seconds, 3 zingers occurred. With 2:49 remaining in the third quarter, Kelsey Fry hit a three-pointer. Melbourne came down the court and landed a big one at 2:34. Kelsey returned the favor on the other end at 2:22.

Junior girls lose in tourney

The Calico Rock Junior Girls did not score a single point in the first quarter of their first-round game against the Cotter Junior Lady Warriors in the Norfolk Junior Invitational Tournament, and they were still trailing at the end of the first half. Yet, amazingly, by fighting hard and never giving up, the Junior Lady Pirates of Calico Rock were leading 20-19 when the buzzer sounded ending the third quarter. Unfortunately for the Junior Lady Pirates, Cotter responded in the final six minutes, in four consecutive trips down the floor, with four two-pointers that recaptured the lead and put the game away. Final score: Cotter 29, Calico Rock 22. Hailey Saunders was high scorer for Cotter with 12 points. Emma Mitchell scored 8 points for Calico Rock. A problem at the free throw line proved the downfall of the Junior Lady Pirates. They were 6 for 21 from the line, 29%.

Sr. Lady Pirate Katie Hamby, #30, gets by her Lady ICC Cougar defender at Harold Ray Jeffery Gymnasium. The Lady Pirates fall to the Lady Cougars after an exciting back and forth game 58-50.
