You don't often get email from ldavis@harborenv.com. Learn why this is important

Hi, Austin,

The system was used by D&Z for treating wastewater from the restrooms in their office building. General Dynamics intends to move into the office building and use the system for the same purpose. Their plan is to hire a company to take a look at the system and perform any required maintenance to assure the system is in proper working order. They do not intend to make any changes to the system either in equipment or intended use.

Does that help?

Leslie

Leslie,

I think if we had a little more clarification on what type of work that is going to be performed then we can have a better idea if it will need ADH's approval.

Hi, Austin,

Thank you for talking with me this morning! As we discussed, Harbor is working with General Dynamics, who has recently leased the old Day and Zimmerman (D&Z) location in Highland Industrial Park. See attached NOI originally approved for D&Z. The site has an existing Orenco domestic wastewater treatment system that was closed when D&Z left the site. General Dynamics has asked Harbor to re-submit a Notice of Intent for coverage under the DEQ General Permit for Individual Treatment Facilities, which requires ADH review.

Since the system was previously approved by ADH, we are wondering if any additional information will need to be submitted to approve the system for DEQ permitting.

I appreciate your assistance with this. Please reach out if you have any questions or if we can provide additional information.

Thanks,

Leslie
