Kathryn,

I will assume there will be no substantive comments during your public comment period (since there's been only one (1) comment on any Pretreatment mods in my 22+ yrs here) and will enter 12/6/11 as the Ordinance adoption date on my internal tracking list.

Since the FOG Ord. is slightly out of the purview of the specifics of 40 CFR 403, I'm not entering its adoption date. Good luck and good job on it!

Tim,

I don't see anything wrong with this short public notice, but I've made some minor suggestions for your consideration.

And, I don't have any problems with the procedural aspects of the adoption; then the P/N and 90 day 'till effective date as long as your attorney is fine with it.

You did say I'd be receiving a pdf copy (as an e-mail attachment) of the adopted (signed/dated) final Ordinance, didn't you? I'll go ahead and include that signed Ord's date on my internal tracking list.
