NOTES:

* Collector pipe for primary leachate collection and removal, and for leachate detection and removal to the bottom of trench.

 Laterals for primary leachate collection and removal, and for leachate detection and removal to be performed underground pipe.

The primary system is above the secondary system in the same vertical plane.

This drawing indicates the "decommissioning" trench, the "production" trench is identical except the top width is 225 ft.