

The above locations were monitored for Benzene, VOC, and H2S at the beginning of the night work shift 4/09/2013 20:25. All readings were below the limit of detection for the instruments used.