

The above locations were monitored for Benzene, VOC, and H₂S at the beginning of the day time work shift 4/11/2013 8:19. All readings were below the limit of detection for the instruments used.