

The above locations were monitored for Benzene, VOC, and H2S at the beginning of the day time work shift 4/8/2013 8:13. All readings were below the limit of detection for the instruments used.