

September 3 2020

Dear Sir:

I am very careful about responding to threats to the environment. Issues can be complicated, as there are many sides and things to consider when interests compete.

It is clear to me, though, that the Buffalo River Watershed is the wrong place for an industrial swine factory.

I do not believe this is a right to farm issue.

We need a permanent moratorium.

Sincerely,
John Casey

John Casey
2716 Reeder

Ft Smith, AR 72901

jcasey@subi@qmatic.com